In concordance with Article Two of the United States Constitution, Section 4, which states "The President, Vice President, and all Officers of the United States shall be removed from Office on Impeachment for, and Conviction of Treason, Bribery, or other High Crimes and Misdemeanors", and In concordance with the Jefferson's Manual Section LIII, 603, which states that "impeachment may be set in motion by charges preferred by a memorial, which is usually referred to a committee for examination", I submit the enclosed Petition for review by the House Judiciary Committee (see Hinds Sec. 2364, 2491, 2494) regarding the impeachment of ROBERT V. ABBEY, Director, Bureau of Land Management, U.S. Department of the Interior. For precedent, I refer to the petition of Luke Edward Lawless, from March 30th, 1826 regarding the impeachment of Federal Judge James H. Peck. I additionally refer to the following House Rules that allow for the submission of a memorial, including from citizens not in your constituency: See United States Congress House Rules Manual, Doc No. 108-241, Page 600: "Petitions, memorials, and other papers addressed to the House may be presented by the Speaker as well as by a Member (IV, 3312). Petitions from the country at large are presented by the Speaker in the manner prescribed by the rule (III, 2030; IV, 3318; VII. 1025). A Member may present a petition from the people of a State other than his own (IV. 3315, 3316). The House itself may refer one portion of a petition to one committee and another portion to another committee (IV, 3359, 3360), but ordinarily the reference of a petition does not come before the House itself." I would appreciate a timely response, and thank you in advance for your assistance in this procedure. Respectfully submitted,
